Bay Area Mediation Services presents

20-Hour Arbitrator Certificate Training

Do you want the skill and confidence to settle complex cases in a way that's more final than most court decisions? Do you want to enhance your own credibility as counsel, mediator, or dispute resolver?

This course satisfies the training requirements for serving on BASF's new Commercial Arbitration Panel. Secure your spot early!

Well-represented and sophisticated parties like Fortune 500 companies and professional athletes voluntarily choose arbitration. Why? They know they can choose an arbitrator who really understands their issues. They can shape their own process. Perhaps most importantly, they can actually get a prompt hearing and a final and binding decision. With this training, you can be that arbitrator!

"The training provides a comprehensive body of knowledge on how to conduct arbitration, and also teaches you how to strive to be the best arbitrator that you can be!"
~ Natalie Zhang, US China Law Counsel

"Ron Kelly's Arbitration certification program gives you all you need to know to start a successful arbitration practice. The interactive class is great!"
