Technology can play a significant role in every aspect of the legal profession, and trial is no exception. In this digital age, there is a plethora of high-tech trial products to choose from to help present your case and organize the trial presentation process. But which products actually assist the court and juries in understanding complex ideas and issues and are worth your time and money? The panel will offer practical advice about the latest technologies that give litigators an edge at trial.

Topics

- How to present your evidence and claims in a visually appealing way without breaking your budget
- Tips on navigating admissibility hurdles
- Current trends for effectively using technology at trial
