The Solo and Small Firm Section of the Barristers Club presents

Opportunities for US Funds and Startups during COVID-19 & FIRRMA

Thursday
September 24, 2020
Program: 12:00 - 1:15 p.m.

FIRRMA expands CFIUS’s authority to review or even rewind minority foreign investments in “covered transactions” related to a U.S. company that involves specified “critical technology”, “critical infrastructure” or having access to “sensitive personal data” of U.S citizens. However, FIRRMA also specifically carves out a U.S. “Investment Fund” exception. With careful planning and well drafted fund documents, a qualifying U.S. fund is allowed to receive foreign funds and invest in “covered transactions” without subject to CFIUS review or mandatory reporting and in compliant with FIRRMA.
