In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, authorities at the federal, state and local levels of government have enacted emergency measures that immediately impact landlords and tenants during this crisis. This program dives into some of the local and state regulations currently in effect.

Topics

- Surveying the statewide and local eviction moratoriums
- How COVID-19 is affecting various housing court operations.
- How should tenants ask for rent deferments and how should landlords respond.
- New California Rules of Court Emergency Rules for statewide unlawful detainers
