Join us as we pickup where we left off in our wildfire insurance claim basics series. Don't worry if you didn't catch the last one, this program will dig deeper into updates in claim handling and the most important California Insurance Code provisions you should be aware of. We will also discuss new and proposed legislation shaping policyholders' rights beginning in 2021 along with insurance bad faith.

Our panelists are experienced policyholder attorneys and consumer advocates. This seminar will be beneficial not only to those practicing in the industry, but anyone who may encounter a disaster survivor looking for guidance.
