This program will address the intersection of law and online content, including protections for content hosts under Section 230 (Communications Decency Act), the First Amendment and state action doctrine after Manhattan Community Access Corp. v. Halleck and Prager University v. Google, the role of private adjudications of content moderation including The Oversight Board (Facebook & Instagram), and approaches for litigators addressing these issues for their clients.

And will Facebook and Twitter keep Donald Trump banned?

Topics

- Law Regulating and Protecting Social Media Platforms
- Proposed Legislation in Congress and First Amendment Challenges
- Realities of Content Moderation
- Litigation Approaches Including Anti-SLAPP Motions
- Facebook and Twitter's bans of Donald Trump
