Join four remarkable and talented partners for a roundtable discussion as they share their tips for strategic business development, leadership, and other topics to make and succeed as a law firm partner. This discussion is for attorneys interested in becoming a law firm partner, attorneys who new law firm partners, and those who are looking to strengthen their business and client development skills.

Topics

- A panel of law partners who will share their views on how to become a “keeper” and standout in a law firm;
- How to develop sustainable and meaningful professional relationships;
- Ways to develop leadership skills and become a better leader; and
- How to build networks and effectively raise professional profiles in the legal community.
