During this program, the speakers—who have collectively presided over hundreds of trials—will provide their insights into what makes a great trial lawyer and best trial practices. Join us for a lively conversation as the speakers share their opinions on common voir dire pitfalls, pre-trial discovery mistakes, what separates good opening and closing arguments from stellar ones, and more.

Topics

- What makes a great trial lawyer from a judge's perspective
- Common mistakes judges see in the trial and courtroom setting
- Strategies for delivering a persuasive opening and closing argument
- How to improve witness examinations and common cross-examination pitfalls
- Conducting an effective voir dire and California's changing landscape
