This panel discussion will serve as an overview of the practice of third-party litigation funding, a growing practice that's reshaping the legal landscape. Litigation funding experts will discuss this innovative financing model and its myriad implications. The panel will kick off by examining the fundamentals of litigation funding and its recent surge in popularity. Our speakers will then discuss ethical considerations surrounding external funding, including its effect on the attorney-client relationship.

Topics

- Background of litigation funding
- Trends in litigation funding
- Typical litigation funding agreements/terms
- Ethical considerations / conflicts of interest/affect on attorney client relationship
- Disclosure requirements
