From Bellotti to Citizens United, corporate attorneys need to understand how constitutional and corporate law are converging, creating new rights and new risks for clients. We'll cover the history, implications and questions clients should be asking.

Topics

- What are the major milestones in the history of corporate constitutional rights?
- What impacts have resulted from expanded corporate rights?
- What business, reputational, and systemic risks do companies face as a result?
- What are the major reforms being proposed?
- What questions should corporate clients be asking as they consider proposed reforms?
