Senior Counsel, Chevron

Moderator

John Muse-Fisher

Attorney (International Arbitration)

SB 766, California's new law on international arbitration, now explicitly provides a statutory right for out-of-state and foreign attorneys to represent parties in international arbitrations in California, allowing the state to become a leading destination for resolution of such disputes.

Topics

- A detailed description of SB 766
- Insight on the potential impact of SB 766 from the perspective of in-house counsel and private practitioners
- A discussion about opportunities for International Arbitration practitioners in California
