Come hear about the quickly evolving area of disability employment law. Our presenters will have a lively discussion about the important federal and state decisions in 2019.

Discussion topics for this conversation will include:

- Round-up of 2019 federal cases in disability employment law
- Round-up of 2019 California cases in disability employment law
- Changes in law and predictions for 2020

Speakers

Ben Bien-Kahn

Senior Counsel, Rosen Bien Galvan & Grunfeld

Ben practices civil litigation in federal and state courts, with an emphasis on class actions, constitutional law, disability rights, and employment. He litigates class actions on behalf of people with disabilities, and has represented clients in employment discrimination and harassment, wrongful termination, and wage and hour claims.

Jeffrey Polsky

Partner, Fox Rothschild

Jeff serves as co-chair of the firm's Labor and Employment Department. He focuses his practice on business and employment litigation and counseling. He represents clients in disputes relating to claims of discrimination and harassment, trade secret violations, wage and hour compliance, wrongful discharge and breach of contract.
