You know that feeling you get when you want to scream at the screen because a television show lawyer mishandled a legal ethics dilemma? In this CLE, we will set the stage with examples of how fictional attorneys handled a thorny issue, and then break down how the attorney got it wrong (or right) by applying the top ten professional conduct duties that we owe to clients. You may find that even Saul Goodman complies with the rules now and then. Attendee active participation is encouraged.

Topics

- The Bedrock of Ethics: Competence, Communication and Confidentiality
- The lesser known Diligence rule
- Conflicts 101
- Duties to organizational clients
