You should attend this webinar if you or your clients operate in cannabis. The industry has placed a premium on relationships with regulators and society at large has placed value on the licenses of those who are assisting patients in need. Regardless of economic upside, compassion programs demonstrate a commitment to community, leadership, and charity. If your clients may be required to support compassionate use or are merely interested in contributing to the compassionate provision of cannabis to those in need, or even if you are just interested in ways to improve your clients' profiles with minimum disruption to the bottom line, then this is the program for you.

Topics

- Hear About the Ongoing Fight to Protect Health Equity and Why It's So Important
- Learn the State Regulations for Compassion Programs
- Identify Best Practices for Compassion Programs and Medicinal Access
- Uncover Ways to Encourage Clients to Participate in Compassion Programs
- Hear About the Push for Tax Credits for Cannabis Businesses Participating in the Cannabis Nonprofit Sector
- Learn About the Needs and Compassion Demographics, including Access for Veterans, Terminally Ill Patients, People of Color, LGBTQIA+, and Refugees
- Understand How Your Client Benefits From Offering a Compassion Program
