Come hear about the quickly evolving area of disability employment law. Our presenters will have a lively discussion about the important federal and state decisions in 2022.

Topics for this conversation will include:

- Round-up of 2022 federal cases in disability employment law
- Round-up of 2022 California cases in disability employment law
- Changes in law and predictions for 2023

Speakers

Cara Trapani

Associate, Rosen Bien Galvan & Grunfeld

Cara Trapani is an associate at Rosen Bien Galvan & Grunfeld LLP. She works on complex litigation and prelitigation matters, with an emphasis on civil rights, disability rights, employment, and business at the trial court and appellate levels in federal and state court.

Michelle Barrett Falconer

Shareholder, Littler Mendelson P.C.

Michelle is the National Co-Chair of Littler's Leaves of Absence and Disability Accommodation Practice Group. She regularly advises management clients on disability accommodation issues, the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) and similar state laws, and other leaves of absence. Michelle has helped national and global clients, as well as clients with operations based solely in California, to develop leaves of absence and disability accommodation policies, procedures, forms, as well as to create process-oriented solutions to comply with local laws.

Sponsored by Equality Committee on Disability Rights of the Bar Association of San Francisco
