In this long-standing annual program, our panel of experienced insurance coverage lawyers will tackle key developments in California insurance law during 2022. With a unique combination of spirited debate and practical tips, this program will benefit coverage lawyers, litigators, and in-house counsel alike.

Topics

- New developments in California law on coverage for Covid-19 losses
- The evolving definition of an accident
- Coverage for cases alleging privacy violations
- California's new statute on time-limited settlement offers
