Disrupting Traditional Addiction Recovery

SPEAKER

Shirley Wantland

Recovery Consultants

Shirley Wantland, the Founder of Recovery Consultants will be joining us to discuss how she's disrupting the rehab and recovery space.

For decades substance abuse and relapse rates have been rising, and during Covid, it got worse. It's become tragically normalized to hear about people dying from overdoses.

With substance use sky rocketing, not only are more resources needed than ever before, the ones we have are sub-par and need to be reimagined.

Recovery Consultants set out to change the status quo.

Pushing up against standard, one size fits all treatment models—Recovery Consultants has provided hundreds of people individualized recovery, transformed and personalized for them. They know that no one path to recovery looks the same, so why do recovery programs?

Join us to learn why Americans are losing so many to the battle against addiction, Recovery Consultants unique approach, and the meaningful difference they can make in your clients' lives.
