This program helps answer how to best make use of a settlement conference—whether mandatory or voluntary—to best advance your client’s interests. The panelists have collectively presided and participated in hundreds of conferences and will share their advice on how to prepare for the conference including drafting and exchanging of mediation briefs and managing client expectations. We will also discuss strategy during the conferences, and how—in successful cases—to draft term sheets.

Topics

- Preparing for a settlement conference
- Drafting and exchanging settlement/mediation briefs
- Effective strategies for settlement/mediation
- How to prepare clients and manage expectations
