June 2, 2025

MCLE Registration: 11:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.
Virtual Program: 12:00 p.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Speakers

Angela Dunning
Cleary Gottlieb

Matthew Butterick
Butterick Law

Moderator

Angus MacDonald
Managing Counsel
University of California - Office of General Counsel

This presentation will be the second of two webinars regarding the emergence of AI-generated art. The presenters will give a summary of the current lawsuits that have been filed against companies using Large Language Model AI programs to generate art and other media.

In this second webinar, we will hear from both plaintiff and defendant's counsel. There will be an overview of the cases, and how claims have developed. The counsel will discuss the protectability of art style in the context of Lanham act claims, and DMCA claims regarding the removal of copyright management information.

Topics

- Learn about the current lawsuits surrounding AI-Generated Art
- Hear from counsel for both plaintiffs and defendants in the major AI cases currently in litigation
- Learn the key issues of each case, the claims and defenses, and how the cases have changed throughout the litigation

Section Chairs

Lauren Curry, Office of City Attorney
Natasha Chee, Donahue Fitzgerald
