Please join BASF for a special event featuring prominent intellectual property litigators Miriam Kim, Neel Chatterjee, and Brent Hawkins, who will discuss recent litigation developments in the world of patents, trade secrets, copyrights, and trademarks. The discussion will also delve into topics relating to the protection of data from an IP perspective, including:

- Section 101 of the Patent Act
- Controversial issues in trade secret protection and damages
- Using large datasets to train generative AI and the associated copyright and right of publicity issues
- Laws related to data scraping and the protection of large datasets
