Hear directly from judges about do's and don'ts when it comes to contacting the court, requesting reconsideration, and other situations in filings or oral argument that may annoy the judge (whether you realize it or not)

Topics

- When is it appropriate to reach out to the court directly?
- When are requests for reconsideration likely to be successful and when should they not be brought?
- What steps should counsel take when reaching out to the court or requesting reconsideration to minimize chances of irritating the judge?
- Other do's and don'ts when litigating your case in SF Superior or N.D. Cal.

Section Chair

Adam Brausa, Morrison Foerster
