This seminar will provide an NLRB baseline for practitioners who are new to traditional labor law and then very quickly will move into areas of interest for those who regularly practice before the Board. This is an opportunity to hear directly from local regional leadership.

Topics

- An overview of the National Labor Relations Board today: Board members, the General Counsel, Regional Offices, and Representation Case statistics
- Policies/Directives/Memos traditional labor practitioners should know about
- Legal Developments: what types of ULPs are on the rise? Litigation Updates? Remedies?
