

The Estate Planning, Probate and Trust Section presents

Planning for Companion Animals: Estate Planning Tips for the “Furry Children”

Speaker

M. Brooke Wilson

Senior Counsel

Greene Radovsky Maloney Share & Hennigh LLP

Estate planning can often seem like a chore for clients. But for many animal-lovers, thinking about their pets as part of this process can bring an enormous sense of relief (and even a bit of enjoyment!). This presentation focuses on how to assist your clients in planning for their companion animals

Topics

- Preparing for the “emergency” situations
- Planning for long-term care for the animals during incapacity
- What happens at death? Options for the animals (including pet trusts)
- Handling the post-death logistics
